*Afternoon tea was introduced in England by Anna,
the seventh Duchess of Bedford, in the year 1840.
The Duchess would become hungry around 4 o'clock
in the afternoon.*

The evening meal in the household was served fashionably late at eight o'clock, thus leaving a long period of time between lunch and dinner.

*The Duchess asked that a tray of tea, bread and butter
and a cake be brought to her room during the late afternoon. This became a habit and she began inviting friends to join her.*

*This pause for tea became a fashionable social event.
During the 1880's upper-class and Society women would change into long gowns, gloves and hats for their afternoon tea which was usually served in the drawing room between four and five o'clock.*

All prices exclusive of VAT and to include chef's/waitresses/waiting staff, china, cutlery, table linen, napery.
NB. These prices are for a minimum of 50 persons, banquet style. Smaller numbers catered for with a price adjustment.
£200 deposit secures price and date.
